

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXVII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MARCH 9, 1909.

NO. 1.

HIGHLAND.

Adams & Hyatt have added a sawing apparatus to their mill and will be ready to saw lumber this week.

Farmers are making preparations to raise a lot of tobacco, but possibly more winter crops than summer ones.

Mrs. E. B. Bastin, who has been sick for some time, is still very low. Mrs. Burton Spies has been very sick with grip for a month or more.

We regret that J. A. Hollas, who recently sold his farm, is making preparations to move with his family to Oklahoma. We wish them success in their new home.

Elbert E. Young spent a few days with the homefolks last week en route from Louisville, where he had been to attend the Anti-Saloon League Convention. Messrs. Bates and Barlow, traveling men for Louisville and Cincinnati houses, were here last week. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baugh and Miss Minnie Baugh visited the family of Harlan Newell at Eubanks. W. J. Moran and wife spent Sunday with John Young and family. Mart Horton, of New Albany, is here with friends.

Since our last letter there have been a number of changes. G. W. Young and wife, who have kept house for J. S. Young the past year, have moved back to their own property. Mr. Hay, of Turnersville, has moved to John Reid's farm. Tim Hutchison, who has moved some three or four times during the last year, is now back on the place that he left when he went to Arizona. S. S. Bastin has moved into his house built on the land recently purchased of J. S. Young. Hardin Cook has moved to Rev. Mills' farm from the Mart Bryant place. Jim Hollar has moved into one of J. S. Young's houses and will raise a crop of tobacco for Mr. Young, who destroyed an apple orchard for ground to cultivate the weed.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs, quickly, strengthens the lungs and expels colds. Get the genuine in a yellow package. New Stanford Drug Co.

CUT FLOWERS FOR SALE!

I can furnish the public with the best, as well as the freshest of cut flowers, in all kinds, in large quantities, on short notice. Also make a specialty of wreaths for funeral purposes.

T. F. GROSS,

Grab Orchard, Kentucky.

Is now ready to serve his old friends and hopes to make many new ones. If you have a little or horse to castrate save the work for him and have it done right. He makes a specialty of castrating ridgehills.

PUBLIC SALE!

Having sold my farm, I will offer at public outcry on SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 1909, the following described property: Nine or 10 horses, some extra good ones; sheep, milk cows, hogs, farming implements, 1 two-horse wagon, buggy, 1 early car, number of hives of bees and many other things too numerous to mention. Sale will be held at my house, 2 1/2 miles Northwest of Harlanville, beginning at 9:30 A. M. sharp.

J. M. FENDERWOOD, Harlanville, Ky.

EXECUTRIX'S SALE!

As executrix of the estate of William Warren, deceased, I will on TUESDAY, MARCH 23, 1909, beginning at 10 o'clock A. M., sell to the highest and best bidder, at public outcry, on the farm of the late William Warren, deceased, the following personal property, to-wit: Seven Jersey cows, 3 registered short-horn cows, 1 yearling heifer, 9 calves, 10 milk cows, 1 bred to jack, 1 work mule, 1 mile cart, farming implements, 2 wagons, 1 spring wagon, 1 new carriage, 1 phonograph, 2 double shovel plows, 2 turning plows, 2 cultivators, 1 disc harrow, 1 smoothing harrow, 1 hay rake, 2 mowing machines, 2 binders, 1 corn planter, 1 disc drill with fertilizer attachment, 1 cutting box, corn shelling machine, 1 sending box, half interest in roller, wagon and plow gear, 20 barrels of excellent corn, household and kitchen furniture and a number of other things.

TERMS: All purchases of $10 and under cash in hand; all over $10 on a credit of six months, with note with approved security payable to the undersigned and bearing 6 per cent. interest from date until paid.

Mrs. W. A. WARREN, T. D. English, Att., Danville, Ky.

Lincoln Bonds for Sale!

4 Per Cent. Semi-Annually.

On SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 1909, at 1 o'clock P. M. in front of the court house door in Stanford, Lincoln county, Ky., the undersigned commissioners will sell at public outcry to the highest bidder the bonds of said county to the amount of $250,000 for the purpose of erecting a new court-house in said county. Said bonds will be issued in three series, to-wit: Series "A" of $100,000 and consisting of 20 bonds of $500 each, due and payable in 10 years from May 1, 1909, with the privilege of redeeming in 7 years.

Series "B" of $100,000, consisting of 20 bonds of $500 each, due and payable in 20 years from May 1, 1909, but with the privilege of redeeming in 15 years.

Said bonds will be sold on April 10, 1909, at 1 P. M. and will be listed and bear interest from 1st day of May, 1909, with interest at 4 per cent., payable semi-annually.

G. B. Cooper, J. S. Owens, Jr., and W. A. Burch, Commissioners.

An Allegory.

In a small, obscure village nestling at the foot of the hills, whose chief attractions were its healing waters, which gave life and vigor to those unfortunate of earth afflicted with divers diseases, bloomed a frail human flower. Bereft of parental care at the moment of birth, with no gentle hand to guide, no one to give the nourishment so necessary in its future life, it grew alone. No gentle sunlight, no refreshings showers, with nothing but the rough blasts of life to beat upon its tender leaves and roughly away its fragile stock. No companions came near except to jeer at her imperfections. None offered to stand between her and the cutting blasts, or let a friendly ray of sunshine in. Deserted and despised by her own kindred, neglected and forsaken by her own household, this flower was left entirely alone to her own sad reveries, to do the best she could and keep aloof from more favored flowers.

She had nothing to do but brood over as sad a fate as the little sparrow-shaken from the nest, bruised by the sharp stones and uncaressed for by any human eye. In such a hour came one who praised and flattered this poor, weak flower, using honeyed words and praised her symmetry of form, beauty of color and rare qualities. His words fell like sweet nectar upon the drooping, famishing heart of this mountain rose. She had still some one to care for her, some one who did not scorn her defects and in the first glow of her youthful, trusting spirit, was it any wonder she nodded a welcome and in all unconscious hour allowed herself to be so shaken that her pretty head was hung in shame? This lovely rose was robbed of beauty, perfume and even life. But lo, from the withered stem peeped a tiny bud, fresh, joyously, begging a great world to only give it room to bloom; not keep back the sunshine and showers, not to treat it with the cold, cutting scorn its mother felt and fell beneath. But learn a great lesson from her fall, viz: All the costliest flowers we can heap upon the coffin lid, all the beautiful, eloquent eulogies we can utter over the cold remains will not atone with a merciful Savior for our acts of cruel injustice and neglect of duty. Let us bestow our flowers while the living can enjoy them. Perhaps kind treatment, loving advice and gentle persuasion may nurture some helpless rose, drooping in solitude, cause it to lift its head, enjoy the sunlight and take firmer root for the beautifying of the great kingdom for which it was fashioned. Give the little bud a chance. Atone as much as possible to it for the rude, pitiless treatment its parent received from those claiming to be disciples of the lowly Nazarine and living in the light of a Christian dispensation. B. B.

Law and Order League Formed.

THERE was a meeting at the Christian church Thursday evening to organize a Law and Order League, raise funds for the detection and prosecution of the local option law breakers, etc. A large audience was addressed by J. W. West, of Louisville, Superintendent of the Kentucky Anti-Saloon League, and Joseph Severance, of Frankfort. Both speakers claimed that the law could be enforced if the citizens would stand behind the officers, who would do their duty. A canvas of the house secured many members and liberal contributions. Mr. J. C. McClary is Secretary and Treasurer and if you have made a pledge or would like to be enrolled on the side of Law and Order see him and sign one of our cards and help us in a united effort against this evil. "Let us do with our might what our hands find to go." C. E. Tate, chmn.

A Religious Author's Statement.

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." New Stanford Drug Co.

Mrs. Taft has begun making changes at the White House. The Steward has been succeeded by a woman house-keeper and the officer in uniform at the door has been replaced by a liveried footman.

Don't drug the Stomach, or stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is wrong. It is the weak nerves that are crying out for help. Vitalize those weak inside controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and see how quickly good health will come to you again. Test it and see! Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

Resolutions Passed By The Stanford Ministers.

Whereas the minister is generally condemned by the public for taking a firm stand in civic and political life for what seems to them right, we the undersigned ministers in Stanford, Ky., do hereby set forth what to us seems the correct position and the rules that will govern our conduct in these matters.

1st. That we believe the minister has the same privileges and responsibilities of any other citizen.

2nd. We know that we have the right and it is our privilege and duty to speak at all times concerning matters that make for the peace and well being of the community.

3rd. That we are determined to so speak as to stimulate the public mind to right thinking concerning all moral issues.

4th. That we condemn the whisky traffic and call upon all good citizens to unite with us in banishing this evil from our midst.

5th. That it is not our purpose to speak in behalf of any individual or party except as the well being of the community is at stake.

FORCED by the severest storm of the winter to abandon an outdoor inauguration, William Howard Taft was sworn in as president of the United States in the Senate chamber immediately after James Schoolcraft Sherman had become vice president. Chief Justice Melville Fuller administered the oath. Mr. Taft was accompanied to the auditorium by his predecessor, and Mr. Roosevelt immediately after the inaugural address had been delivered took an affectionate farewell of his successor and left for his home at Oyster Bay. Notwithstanding the condition of the streets the parade was held and nearly 40,000 men participated. At night the inaugural ball and the fireworks display brought the festivities to a close. There was such a jam at the ball that dancing was scarcely indulged in at all.

PROF. FREDERICK STARR, of the University of Chicago, says that "Ex-President Roosevelt will never return to the United States alive from his African hunt. His prophesy is based upon his knowledge of the dangers of that country, particularly the insidious fevers, through his expeditions to the Congo Free State. Looks to us as if the professor is better acquainted with Africa than he is with Theodore.

THE Iroquois Club, a Democratic organization of Chicago, will give a banquet this evening in honor of Jacob M. Dickinson, the new Secretary of War. Former Mayor E. F. Dunne, who is a member of the club, has refused to attend on the ground that Dickinson has left the Democratic party. This, Mr. Dickinson denies, though he admits he did not vote for Bryan for President.

THE closing session of the Sixtieth Congress was entirely devoid of sensational incidents. All legislative matters were speedily closed up by the two houses. In the Senate Vice President Fairbanks made a brief farewell talk. The House gave a vote of thanks to Speaker Cannon, who voiced his acknowledgments in a characteristic address.

THE Negro regiments of Washington presented Senator Joseph B. Foraker with a silver loving cup in appreciation of his fight in the United States Senate to have the battalion of the 25th Infantry, which was discharged without honor as a result of the "shooting up" of Brownsville, Tex., restored to the army.

THE "In Old Kentucky" column of the Louisville Times gets at least a third of its clippings from the Kentucky State Journal, Frankfort, and that's one reason that feature of the paper is a feature.

FRIENDS of Hon. W. P. Kimball are preparing to honor him with a great banquet at Lexington on his return from Washington, where he made a brilliant record in congress.

PRESIDENT TAFT has called a special term of Congress to convene March 15. The call does not mention the object for which the special session is called.

SINCE the county option bill passed the Indiana Legislature 31 counties have gone dry and only one has given a majority for the wet. On Saturday Shelby county went dry, closing 17 saloons.

POLITICAL.

Senator Depew introduced a resolution to change the date of the inauguration from March 4 to the last Wednesday in April.

Joseph W. Calvert, of Pewee Valley, died of pneumonia as he was returning from Washington City on the Bradley special. He was 82 years old.

The special election in Cleveland for the selection of a successor to Congressman Theodore E. Burton has been set by Gov. Harmon for April 20.

The delegation of Kentucky Republicans who went to the inauguration on the Bradley special formed a permanent organization and elected M. H. Thatcher president.

The Federal grand jury in New York returned indictments against the New York World in connection with recent publications concerning the Panama Canal purchase.

Senator W. O. Bradley has appointed Harvey S. Irwin his private secretary pro tem. Mr. Irwin was formerly Congressman from the Fifth district and recently has lived at Washington. Judge James P. Adams and Kelly Kash were each declared the Republican nominees for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney by the Twenty-third Judicial District Republican Committee which met at Beattyville.

F. P. Combest Chairman of the 29th Judicial District has called a Committee meeting at Columbia for the 3rd Monday in May when the time and manner of settling the contests for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney will be settled.

The Kentuckians in Congress have agreed to recommend the appointment of Federal Judge Cochran to the vacancy in the judgeship of the Sixth Circuit. If the appointment is made they will recommend R. C. Winn for the Eastern Kentucky judgeship.

After spending a week at Hopkinsville, eight of the 13 State Senators who ran away from Nashville to break a quorum, returned to Nashville Friday. The runaways were accorded a cordial reception when they took their usual seats in the Senate chamber.

United States Senator Isaac Stephenson was elected on the 23rd ballot in the Wisconsin legislative joint assembly Thursday to succeed himself for a period of six years. Senator Stephenson received 63 out of 123 votes cast, thus having a majority of one.

The House receded from the amendment to the pension appropriation bill consolidating in Washington the 18 agencies throughout the country and the last act of the Sixtieth Congress was to adopt the conference report on that bill. The agencies will be continued as in the past.

The Indiana Senate passed the new Broyley bill, legalizing baseball on Sunday. The vote was 26 to 19. Gov. Marshall late in the afternoon sent a special message to the Legislature saying he would neither sign nor veto the bill, but would leave the question of its constitutionality to the courts.

J. Stanley Webster, formerly of Cynthia, who gained some distinction in this State several years ago in the prosecution of Curt Jett and Tom White, and who has been an able prosecutor in the courts at Spokane, Wash., for some time, was appointed to a judicial position by the acting governor of Washington. The position was recently created by the Legislature and pays $4,000 a year. The appointment is for a four-year term.

MATRIMONIAL.

News comes from Bullitt county that Miss Mary Hundley, the pretty daughter of Mrs. Laura Hundley, of this place, was married to Frank Roberts, a fine young business man of that county. Magistrate J. Mill, Elevator, Residence and Land For Sale!

This mill property, known as the Bradfordsville Roller Mills, is a thoroughly equipped plant with a capacity of 50 barrels of flour daily, besides meal and Graham flour. The plant is in daily operation, producing brands that have a reputation not excelled by any. The Elevator was built in 1907, has a capacity of 20,000 bushels and is equipped with the latest improved machinery. The business was established in 1876 and is in good favor with a large, steady trade.

The residence is a new two-story, 10 room frame with all necessary outbuildings, barn, hedges, corn-crisp, etc., all in good repair, on a lot 19 feet front by 53 feet deep, lawn beautifully shaded by large maples, 13 feet of colonial porch around front and sides of house. One of the most comfortable and desirable homes in Marion County. Attached to this is a plot of about 11 acres of the very finest bottom land, then which there is none better in the State.

The whole property lies together in the edge of the town of Bradfordsville, Ky., a beautiful village with good churches and schools in the valley of the Rolling Fork, 10 miles from Lebanon, Ky., the seat of Marion County, where the nearest mill is located, and where this mill has a good trade. This is an unusual opportunity for a handsome home and a profitable, well established business. The whole property will be sold to the highest bidder on the premises.

We Could Shut our Eyes

To quality and workmanship and give you much showier garments at the same price, but to have them made right and of good material you get a serviceable dress and one that does not lose its shapeliness.

New Suits, New Skirts, New Spring Coats, New Silk Coats.

We have just placed on sale a line of the above goods that are absolutely correct in style and priced much less than the same goods are priced in larger towns and cities.

We Invite Comparison

Of our Skirts with any make. Human hand can not do nicer work than is on these goods (the elite kind). If we haven't your size in the skirt you like, we will make one to fit you. See the new models just in.

SEVERANCE & SON. STANFORD KY.

The Interior Journal.

STANFORD, KY., - MARCH 9, 1909

SOME very special bargains in Box Paper, but the supply is limited. Ask to see them. Penny's Drug Store.

PERSONALS.

BORN, to the wife of Will David Gooch, a son.
MISS STEPHENSON is visiting friends at Richmond.
MR. JOHN OWSLEY REID went to Louisville Saturday.
MR. SAMUEL T. HARRIS visited relatives at Millersburg last week.
MISS ELLEN HALLOU visited relatives at Somerset Friday and Saturday.
MRS. J. E. BUCK, of Gilberts Creek, spent several days with her mother here.

SUIT, GARLAND SINGLETON has been laid up with Job's troubles for some 10 days.
DR. WOODS OGILVIE, of Princeton, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. J. C. Hays.
MRS. T. W. GOOCH and Miss Cora Singleton were callers at this office Saturday.

HON. HARVEY HELM is at home from Washington looking fine. He will spend a week here.

MISS DORA AND MINNIE STRAUH were in Louisville buying Spring and Summer Millinery.

MR. ASHBY WARREN, of Louisville, delighted his mother and sisters by paying them a visit Sunday.

MASTER MAURICE BRUCE, who has been ill with typhoid fever for a month, is rapidly mending. We are glad to say.

MR. JAMES T. MENEFEER, who now travels out of Rochester, N. Y., spent several days with the homefolks here.

PRESCOTT BROWN, who has inflammation of the heart rather than typhoid fever, as was reported, is rapidly convalescing.

SAM CORNER, who got both legs broken in a wreck here some weeks ago, was able to go to Lebanon Junction yesterday.

MR. AND MRS. F. H. DROZ and little son, Donald, of Cleveland, O., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gooch, in the West End.

MRS. D. M. STEPHENSON visited her father, Mr. W. R. Dick, at Frazure, Wayne county. Mr. Dick has been quite sick but she left him better.

MRS. ANN WHITE, of Moreland, is with her brother, W. H. Brown, here. S. C. White and Sam Murphy, of Moreland, were here Tuesday at court.—Liberty News.

MISS ELLA BARNETTE, of Hustonville, is visiting friends at Dallas, Tex. The I. J. was in error when it stated a few issues ago that the young lady was with friends here.

MISS KATE NEWLAND is back from a visit to her sister, Miss Jennie Newland, at Campbellsburg. A number of entertainments were given in her honor and she had an excellent time.

MRS. W. W. WADE and handsome daughter, Miss Mamie Southerland Wade, of Corbin, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Naylor, near Rowland.

MRS. DR. J. M. OWENS entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Sara Wood, of Danville. The occasion was one of great pleasure and was enjoyed to the fullest.—Somerset Journal.

HON. AND MRS. W. H. SHANKS were both considerably hurt Sunday by the king bolt of their runaway breaking and being hurled to the ground with much force. The former received a cut on the knee and a mashed finger while the latter had one of her arms badly sprained.

MRS. JOE FARRIS, who has been living in Orlando, Fla., returned yesterday from the land of sunshine to again reside in old Kentucky. Mrs. Farris will be followed by the remainder of her family later in the spring and they will live in the old Kentucky homestead on the Lebanon pike. While working on a house last Monday Mr. S. L. Guthrie fell from the roof and sustained several painful injuries.—Advocate.

MISS MARIE AND JOSEPHINE HARKINS, of Prestonsburg, are guests of the Misses Baughman. Miss Sadie Baughman, of Hustonville, was with them last week.

OLLIE FIELDS, of Louisville, visited his parents at Turnersville. He will soon take the management of the men's shoe department of McGin & Honaker, extensive shoe merchants of the Falls City.

JESSE BAUGHMAN caught a fine of $50 in Judge W. A. Tribble's court for whipping his wife. He is working out the fine on the streets.

THE store-house on Lancaster street belonging to the Bourne heirs was sold at public auction Saturday and bought by Hon. J. N. Saunders for $730.

THOMAS RAMSEY, who lives on the Somerset road, two miles from Crab Orchard, will have a sale of stock, crops, household and kitchen furniture, etc., Thursday next, 11th, preparatory to moving to Oklahoma.

A big crowd attended the masquerade rink Friday night and a dozen or more of the young people were masked. Mr. Walter Milburn, of this office, was considered the best masked skater by the judges, Misses Sarah Baughman and Nettie Wray and Mr. George D. Hopper, and was awarded the prize of $5.

THE moving picture show is drawing like wildfire. Good crowds attend each evening and Manager Greenburg is praised for the high order of pictures he is giving. The show begins at 7:15 and for an hour the interest is marked. If you haven't been go to-night and you'll soon get the habit. Adults 10c; children 5c. Follow the crowd.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL published an excellent memorial, relative to the life and character of the late Col. T. P. Hill, which was adopted by the Lincoln County Bar. It was written by Judge M. C. Saulley, a warm friend of Col. Hill, and it is a production that would do credit to the masters. It is chaste in style, pure in diction and enriched with all the higher graces of composition. We hope to have space to reproduce it.—Lancaster Record.

SOLD OUT.—Mr. W. B. McRoberts, who has been in the drug business here since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, has sold his business to Messrs. W. K. Shugars and Varney Tanner, of McKinney, and invoicing will begin this morning. Mr. Shugars was a partner in the New Stanford Drug Co. until a few months ago when he and Mr. J. Randolph Harris sold out to Dr. W. B. O'Bannon and Mr. P. W. Whipp. He and Mr. Tanner are both too well known in this section to make an introduction necessary. Mr. McRoberts is undecided as to his future but the I. J. and his many other friends hope he and his excellent family will remain in Stanford.

MR. D. M. STEPHENSON, of this place, closed a contract to build Mr. Robert L. Collier's pretty cottage at Crab Orchard.

SEE my handsome line of Spring buggies, harness, etc. Call while you have a large assortment to select from. E. T. Pence, Stanford, Ky.

NOTES and accounts collected anywhere in the United States, and no charges unless we collect. May's Collection Agency, Somerset, Ky.

WE have moved to the G. Singleton store-room, opposite the court-house, where we will be glad to serve our customers with all kinds of fresh meat. Lutes & Wilkinson, butchers. Phone 47.

OWING to an important business matter that has to be acted upon at once, the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian Church will meet on Tuesday at 2 o'clock instead of Saturday. A full attendance is desired.

KILLING AT CRAB ORCHARD.—At a skating rink at Crab Orchard Saturday night Walter Ross, aged 19, shot and instantly killed Herbert Humber, 25, also colored. Ross came to Stanford and gave himself up to Jailer Coffey, claiming that he had acted in self defense. A cut on Ross' chin may help him in his plea of self defense.

OUR old friend, Mr. Thomas Metcalfe, of Boyle, was not without a farm long. He sold his magnificent bluegrass estate to Mr. A. J. Thompson, of this county, only a few weeks ago, and on Friday last bought "Warrenwood," the magnificent country home of Mrs. Jean Davis Warren. The place contains 350 acres, lies three miles from Danville on the Hustonville pike and the price paid was $85.

THREE acts of the play "Lena Rivers" are laid in the Sunny South at the home of the Livingstones near Frankfort, Ky., one of the most beautiful and typical old mansions of the South. The play is crowded with amusing incidents and has had an overwhelming amount of success. It is said to be the most popular native play descriptive of American humor now before the public. See it at Walton's Opera House Friday night, March 12.

ELSEWHERE will be found the official announcement of Hon. J. Sam Owsley, Jr., for Circuit Judge. In connection with his candidacy, Mr. Owsley announces his sympathy with, and support of local option laws, and pledges himself to further its interests should he be elected. The only other candidate so far announced is Judge M. C. Saulley. Mr. Owsley has served the Thirteenth District twice as Commonwealth's Attorney, and made a most excellent official. At present he is County Judge of Lincoln, and his popularity in all the counties of this district assure him of a tremendous support in his race for Circuit Judge.—Harrodsburg Herald.

TEARING down the court house preparatory to building a new one has left the people of Stanford without a town-clock with its bell to ring in case of a fire. They are greatly missed as some of its citizens do little but count the stroke of the bell as the hours pass by. In case of fire the INTERIOR JOURNAL suggests that the mayor and chief of police be required to chase themselves over town ringing cow bells.—Frankfort Journal. The editor of the Journal should not make light of I. J.'s suggestion to prevent the town's going up in flames. This paper is not so much interested in its own little holdings but is anxious to keep in tact the Frankfort Journal man's property here, that he may return and spend his declining years in the best town on the map with God's chosen people.

New clocks at Mueller's.

NOTHING worthy of mention was done in the county court yesterday.

DR. W. N. CRAIG will be in his office over McRoberts' drug store all this week.

SUNDAY was the prettiest Spring day imaginable, but yesterday—well, the less said the better.

COPY for the catalogues of the Hustonville Combination Sale Co. has been handed in at this office. Over 200 jacks, stallions and business horses will be disposed of.

NOTICE.—Will divide flock of sheep to suit purchaser and sell hay in 50 and 100 bale lots. One good stallion and horses, cattle, hogs, etc. Sale March 17, 1909. Bettie Spoonamore, Adm.

MRS. JOHN F. CASH will sell her handsome home on Danville Ave. at auction at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, March 23. A good family horse, cow, feed, etc., will be sold at the same time.

ON account of the large number of jacks, stallions and business horses to be sold at the Hustonville Combination Sale another day has been added—March 24, 25, 26. Jacks and stallions will be disposed of on the first day.

THAT popular auctioneer, Col. J. P. Chandler, will cry Dr. J. B. Beck's sale near Hustonville Saturday week, March 20th. Col. Chandler's services are in great demand and it is hard for him to answer all applications in the affirmative.

CHAIRMAN GEO. L. PENNY has called a meeting of the chairmen of this judicial district at Danville for to-day to decide on the manner and time of nominating candidates for Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney. A primary within the next few months is predicted by this paper.

OYSTER SUPPER.—An oyster supper will be given under the auspices of the Maccabees at Kingsville on the evening of Saturday, March 20. There will be a musical entertainment. Go one and all and take your friends and have a good time. S. B. Chevolette, W. F. Lane and W. C. Dye, committee.

IN IT BAD.—Armed Swope, Virgil Hunt and Bud Bickle, Rowland youths, were arrested and placed in jail Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff W. H. Hester. They are charged with breaking into a car at Rowland and stealing a lot of goods, whisky, etc., and selling the whisky. The boys seem to be guilty beyond doubt and are in it bad.

Adorina's Fox

Is a handsome, large young Jersey Bull, descended from a long and unbroken line of the most noted bulls and cows on the Island of Jersey England and America. His sire is one of the best bulls ever imported and his dam is a show cow that has given 65 pounds of rich milk in one day. If you believe "Like begets like" or the likeness of some Ancestor" and have a strictly good cow, you should avail yourself of his services. He will be allowed to serve a limited number of approved, registered cows outside of our own herd this year, for a fee of $5 each. Make engagement before sending cow to be bred. REID & OTTER, Telephone 80, Stanford, Ky. S. B.—We have to offer three extra choice bull calves that will be sold at right prices.

FARMER'S DEPARTMENT.

D. W. Tones sold to Junction parties 200 barrels of corn for $3 70.—Liberty News.

Strawberry authorities say that the crop will be a short one this season on account of the protracted drouth last year destroying many of the plants.

A horse can live 25 days without solid food, merely drinking water; 17 days without either eating or drinking, and only five days when eating solid food without drinking.

A black sow came to my place about the 15th of February. Weighs 200 pounds. Owner can get same by paying for this notice and her keep. W. H. Murphy, Stanford, Ky.

D. C. Chatham sold to Dick Gentry a pair of mules for $350, he also sold to Howard VanArsdall a pair for $350. Howard VanArsdall sold to Dick Gentry a pair of mare mules for $450.—Harrodsburg Herald.

The business element of Richmond has inaugurated a movement to give a Horse Show in the Madison county capital about the middle of July, and if the plans recently mapped out materialize an exhibition will be given for three nights in the big amphitheater at the Madison county fair grounds.

STANFORD COURT.—On account of the severe rain of yesterday few people came to court and business generally was dull. There were hundreds of cattle on the market, but buyer and seller were far apart and not much was done. A number of aged mules changed hands at $125 to $165. The horse market was quiet.

Competitive bids for 600,000 pounds of association tobacco were opened at Hopkinsville Friday and Tandy & Fairleigh were found to be the highest bidders. Their bid was in excess of the price set by the association's graders and it is thought that General Manager Ewing will agree to the sale under the recent agreement made by the recalcitrant farmers of Christian county.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Though the two automobiles purchased for his use have arrived, Mr. Taft walked to church Sunday morning and in the afternoon he rode his newly-bought saddle horse.

The Sunday school of the Christian church is growing rapidly. Every teacher was present Sunday morning and the attendance numbered 210; within four of the largest number ever recorded. The collections amounted to $3.60. The church was crowded Sunday morning when Rev. D. M. Walker preached one of the ablest and best sermons he has given his hearers during his sojourn here.

The Lurid Glow Of Doom

was seen in the red face, hands and body of the little son of H. M. Adams, of Henrietta, Pa. His awful plight from eczema had, for five years, defied all remedies and baffled the best doctors, who said the poisoned blood had affected his lungs and nothing could save him. "But," writes his mother, "seven bottles of Electric Bitters completely cured him." For Eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Sores and Blood Disorders and Rheumatism Electric Bitters is supreme. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

William Marshall Bullitt, Robert H. Winn and Judge E. C. O'Rear held a conference in Frankfort, at which it was decided to push Mr. Winn's claims for Judge Cochran's place on the bench should the Kentucky judge succeed Judge Richards.

SPRING IS HERE and men, women and children are tired of wearing their old Winter Shoes. Our styles this season, we think, are the prettiest and most stylish of any shoes that are made. In gun metals, patent leathers, box calves, velours and vics they are unexcelled. When it comes to O. K. blood shoes and Oxfords you need not go any further. Come and select until your heart's content. Everything new. This season's goods. Prices are pleasing. All the way from a 50c baby shoe to a $4 Crossett. Call around and see our line before you buy elsewhere. Will take pleasure in showing you our line.
